Aging and Employment	March 24	2:45PM	10:00	Hometown Happenings

Mike Melandro, state director of the Alabama Senior Community Employment Program says "seniors" – defined as people 55 and older – are healthier and "younger" than ever and many want and need to stay in the workforce. Dr. Jacqueline James, Director of Research at the Sloan Center on Aging and Work at Boston College agrees. Bill MacCormick speaks to both and all agree that it's time to retire the word "retirement." Dr. James says that people must redefine their expectations of life as they age.

ISSUE	DATE	TIME	DURATION	PROGRAM
America's Healthcare	March 26-30	Weekdays - 12:15 AM, 3:15 AM, 4:30 AM, 10:45 AM, 1:15 PM, 6:15 PM, 10:15 PM	2:00	Crawford Stand

This week, the President of Crawford Broadcasting Company, Don Crawford, has more to say about Obamacare being so dangerous. Mr. Crawford says that the Immigration and Customs Enforcement Office is now ordered to provide free healthcare, including transgender care, as part of Obamacare and he says that some in congress are stunned by what now is being revealed as included as part of the President's healthcare plan, which they voted into law. Finally, Mr. Crawford gives a call-to-action, in the face of what he calls the obnoxious Obama healthcare act.

Parenting/Family/Youth Culture	March 26	8:35 AM	15:00	Priority Talk

Greg Davis talked to Donna McKinley, the program's youth culture expert. Donna talked about a product called "Zannie Air Freshener" which is starting to show up at convenience stores. The spray contains Phenazepam, which creates a type of sedation in which a person can't remember. Phenazepam is a depressant used to treat anxiety. It's similar to xanax or valium. But while Phenazepam is used medicinally in other countries, it's not approved here by the FDA. It is being sold in spray cans that are used for huffing the drug. It's deadly with alcohol. Donna cautioned listeners to be aware of this and urged them to help locate it in Alabama and get rid of it when it's found.
